

Biography: Hadi Sutopo is a researcher of Kalbis Institute, Indonesia. He received his Doctor of Educational Technology from Universitas Negeri Jakarta in 2009, Master of Management Information Systems from Universitas Gunadama in 1998, and Bachelor of Informatics from Universitas Persada Indonesia YAI in 1995. He has authored many books on multimedia, information technology and educational technology. Many articles on the topics were published in international journals and proceedings. He has reviewed many articles for international journals and conferences covering various emerging topics in information technology especially multimedia. His current research focuses on multimedia, computer graphics, and various aspects of educational technology. Hadi Sutopo alias Ariesto Hadi Sutopo alias Topaz has been working as a painting artist and graphic designer since the time before his activities as a lecturer. He has been lecturing multimedia and educational technology since he had completed his study majoring in informatics. He decided to improve his skills with technology when he started studying informatics in his 46 year age. He is a realize painting artist and focuses on human painting, so that sometimes he creates a beautiful one that colors his life. He has unique competency in art and information technology that its integration brought him to deliver talk on multimedia in many countries and universities. Dr. Hadi Sutopo is senior member of International Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE). He is also senior member of International Association of Computer Science and Information Technology (IACSIT) and member of Association for Educational Communications and Technology (AECT). He has been serving as Conference Chair and Program Chair of many international conferences, and also organized many conferences and chaired several technical sessions.